Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Working women now account for 44 percent of the labor force and will account for nearly 50 percent of all workers by 1990; and,

WHEREAS, All women are working women, and have been and are an integral and permanent part of our community's history; and,

WHEREAS, The increasing number of women in the work force requires ongoing efforts by leaders of government, business and labor to develop long-range solutions to address child and dependent care needs, employment and wage discrimination, training and retraining needs, social security and pension inequities and others; and,

WHEREAS, The State of South Dakota recognizes the important contributions working women make to their workplaces and communities; and,

WHEREAS, It is necessary to increase public awareness to their contributions and the concerns they face:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of June 14 through 20, 1987, as

WORKING WOMEN'S AWARENESS WEEK

in South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE BRIELTING, SECRETARY OF STATE
